KKDUNIYA EFFICIENCY TEST ANSWER

We have provided below simple and small paragraphs on various common topics. Such topics are generally assigned to the students of lower class standard (1, 2, 3, and 4) by their class teacher to write some paragraphs on any special occasions (such as Holi, Diwali, etc), social issues (like child labour, etc), proverbs (health is wealth, etc). A small competitive event is organized in the classroom by the class teacher to entertain students as well as improve their writing skill and knowledge about any topic.

As you know under the leadership of Governor General Warren Hastings the British adopted policies named as "reforming" Indian society by introducing Western education, Western ideas and Western institutions. With the cooperation of sections of Indian society they set up English-medium schools, colleges and universities which taught Western sciences as the liberal arts.

Answer Paragraphs writing competitions are part of skill and knowledge enhancement program for the students in the school. Nowadays, almost all the schools are following this regime of essay or paragraphs writing in the classroom in order to enhance the student's learning of English as well as proper awareness about the events and activities in India. We have provided various paragraphs on different topics in order to help students.

The cumulative impact of all this on the people of North India was profound. It seemed to the people that the transition to a pattern of landholding and revenue payment was being oppressive. This perception was aggravated by the activities of Christian missionaries. In such a situation of uncertainty, rumors spread with remarkable swiftness. To explore the aspects of the Revolt of 1857 in some detail let us look at an Awadhi one of the major centers where the drama of 1857 unfolded. Governor General Lord Dalhousie described the kingdom of Awadhi.
